

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, PICKAWAY COUNTY, OHIO
JUVENILE DIVISION

JOURNAL ENTRY

The following is a bond schedule for Pickaway County Juvenile Court.

BOND SCHEDULE FOR MISDEMEANORS

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the following schedule established pursuant to Ohio Rules of Criminal Procedure, Criminal Rule 46, shall be applied in all criminal cases. The amounts set forth herein are to be considered maximum bond. The arresting or custodial officer may admit an offender on a lesser bond, including “recognizance” considering the following:

- A. Offender has no history of failure to appear when previously required to do so in judicial proceedings.
- B. The person’s physical, mental, or emotional condition requires his/her immediate hospitalization.
- C. The person is and has been a resident of Pickaway County, Ohio and is and has been regularly employed.
- D. The person represents no danger to other persons or property or to the public safety in general.
- E. The person will be released into the temporary care of a responsible relative, friend or other person.

BOND CAUTIONARY CRITERIA

- 1. In the event that a firearm, deadly weapon or dangerous ordinance as defined in Section 2923.11 of the Ohio Revised Code was or has been used in the commission of the crime for which the offender is incarcerated, or if the offender has threatened the use of deadly force against any person or any person’s property, the arresting officer may increase maximum bond by double.
- 2. If the offense committed has resulted in serious personal injury to a victim, bystander or law enforcement officer, the arresting officer may increase the maximum bond to triple the amount set forth in the schedule noted below.
- 3. If special circumstances exist, which in the prudent opinion of the arresting or confining authority, require a higher bond than is comprehended by this “Bond Schedule”, it is necessary that permission be obtained from the Judge of Common Pleas Court in Pickaway County, Ohio.

ALL BONDS REQUIRED HEREIN SHALL BE CASH
